This is a book about Pre- destiny,

Bonus Chapter 2

All praises be to Allah and

salutations and peace be upon the

Prophet Muhammad, His Family, His

Companions and all those that follow

him until the day of Judgement

To proceed

1. If you don't let go to worldly love, you'll never know which relationship is meant to be permanent, and which was meant to be temporary; for the good of yourself.

Take the example of Prophet Ibrahim (upon him be peace and Salaam):

The important thing (wa Allahu A'laam/ and Allah knows best) is that Allah wanted

Ibrahim( 'aleihimussalaatu wa salaam/ upon him be peace and Salaam) to sacrifice the love of his son from his own heart.

Like the story of the 2 sons of Adam; Allah wanted to see who would part from the dunia/worldly life from their hearts( wa Allahu A'laam/ and Allah knows best), by giving their best possessions i.e. the crops

Allah is Assamad(He is in need of noone/nothing, but all are in need of him).

So the conclusion is that Allah wants us to go to Him with Qalbun Salim(a pure heart).

May Allah allow us to live and die with Qalbun saliim(a pure heart)

May Allah guide us all

Ameen

Bonus Chapter 3

All praises be to Allah and
salutations and peace be upon the
Prophet Muhammad, His Family, His
Companions and all those that follow
him until the day of Judgement

To proceed

Fronting wouldn't be such an accurate name for 'gra gra', as they call it in Nigeria.

In Nigeria, the social system/ system of daily interaction/ operation is set by the people( of-course by the permission of Allah), in their own way.

Trying to compare Nigeria with another country is like trying to compare tomatoes and potatoes, they are not the same; a vegan would definitely tell you that. Some Nigerians will go as far as telling you that:

“There are the Blacks, the whites, and then the Nigerians “ or thereabout, which in my (almost a) years experience in Nigeria, I would definitely agree with this idiom. This is from the angle of Nigeria and its people

I can categorically say that gragra is a spiritual system that Nigerians use to carry out their day to day tactical activities and strategies.

I must admit, I've never seen any system in the world so solid.

Much of their tactics and strategies( ...) with regards to the 'gragra' is not even written down.

Gragra is a spiritually etched system in the souls of the people living in Nigeria (both Nigerians and foreigners who have assimilated long enough in Nigeria).

As a practising Muslim( by the permission of Allah), I only wished to analyse the positive side of this so-called gragra.

In conclusion, at the end of the gragra, you get all the things you need( by the will of Allah), not necessarily what you want( especially if it is not good for you). This is from an Islamic and spiritually inclined point of view.

Just as a final warning:

Nigeria is not for the faint-hearted nor the dumb-witted.
You also have to have contacts
in high places to (generally) positively live there.
